EC and ES Moving-up Day 24 May

Early Childhood and Elementary Moving-up Day will take place next Wednesday morning, 24 May. Students will spend part of the morning in next year's class and will meet the class teacher. They will find out about their learning environment next year and can ask questions about the programme. Students whose parents have enrolled them at BIS for the next academic year have also been invited to attend. Grade 5 Moving-up Day will take place during period 3. The Grade 6 and 7 additional languages information session for Grade 5 and Grade 6 students and parents will take place on the same day at 3pm in the Grade 5 classroom.

If you have questions about Moving-up Day, please ask your child's teacher.

Religion classes - last day Tuesday 30 May

The final day of Religion classes for Indonesian citizens will be Tuesday 30 May. To fulfil government requirements, from late August we will once again have Religion classes for those students from Grade 1 upwards who are registered as Indonesian citizens. For 2017-18, Religion classes will only take place in the first semester to allow the focus in the second semester to be on preparation for the National Exams in Grades 6, 9 and 12.

Thank you for your support of this extended curriculum. Please ask me if you have any questions.
